LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Kinan is due this morning from Maui and Hawaii.

An office in the McInerney block on Fort street is for rent or lease.

Five passengers left on the W. G. Hall yesterday for the Volcano.

There will be a rehearsal of the Mikado Company this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Hospital Flower Society meets at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. hall.

The captain of the Borrowdale will not be responsible for any debts contracted by his crew.

Mr. Sayford, the evangelist, speaks again this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Union Church.

Members of the first battalion Hawaiian Volunteers are ordered to report at their armory at 10 o'clock this morning.

Two lots of opium, in all, about 800 tins, are missing from the Custom House where they were placed for safe keeping.

The Maui Racing Association will hold its fourth annual meeting on July 4th. Sixteen events are down on the programme.

A lamp exploded in a room over a store on King street near the bridge yesterday evening, but the flames were quickly put out.

The box plan for the sale of seats for the performance of the Mikado, Friday evening, opens at 9 o'clock this morning at the office of Mr. L. J. Levey.

The Bijou Company will present "The rough diamond" and "Black-eyed Susan" at the Opera House Saturday evening. Box plan at J. E. Brown & Co.'s office.

Capt. Ackerman came down on the Irmgard from San Francisco, to take charge of his vessel the barkentine Geo. C. Perkins which arrived yesterday from Peru.

The Chief Justice will return from Hilo on the 31st of May. Judge McCully leaves the following Monday to hold term at Wailuku. Justice Dole is expected home on the 30th instant.

The barkentine George C. Perkins got ashore on Molokai Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock. A gang of natives assisted in throwing out her ballast and she was got off early Tuesday morning, arriving in Honolulu the same day.

The grand ball in aid of the relief fund of the Honolulu Fire department, will be held on the evening of June 10th, probably at the Armory. Committees of arrangements have been appointed. It will doubtless be a very brilliant affair.

The Legislative Assembly of 1890 will be opened at noon to-day by His Majesty the King in person. Her Majesty the Queen and H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani will be present. The public are cordially invited to attend. Ushers will be in attendance.

Deputy Marshal Hopkins held an inquest yesterday on the fire which took place, Saturday evening, foot of Richard street. The jury sworn was Frank Gertz, Henry Klemme and J. N. Trueschler, who returned a verdict "that the fire originated by the accidental explosion of a lamp in a chandelier in the room of one Mexican Mitchell."

Miss Stumbaugh, the blind vocalist and elocutionist, gives her entertainment this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. hall. The programme will consist of ballads, humorous and pathetic readings, also a full account of the methods of instructing the blind. The admission is fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

In the Police Court Tuesday morning, Lui, the New Hebridean, was charged with the murder of Charles Hiram on May 9th.

Kakaio was examined and stated that Lui came to Hiram's house that night and asked for the Fiji woman; that Hiram told him to go away; that directly after he heard the report of a gun and found that Hiram was shot.

Mary Unquart, the Fiji woman, said she lived for five months with Lui. She saw him shoot Hiram and then run away.

Lehua, a private, and Chas. Warren sergeant, in the Household guards, also gave evidence.

Deputy Marshal Hopkins gave particulars of the inquest held on the body.

His Honor committed the prisoner for trial to the Supreme Court.

Board of Fire Underwriters. A meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters of Honolulu was held yesterday to see what could be done with regard to the bad oil that there undoubtedly is in town.

Fire Marshal White was present and gave several tests of oils he had obtained from various parts of the town. Many were below the legal test.

A committee was appointed to take samples of oil from the kerosene warehouse and have them tested by experts. The Marshal was to be invited to witness the tests. The experts will report to the Board as early as possible.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Bijou Comedy Company in "Lynwood" at the Opera House.

Yesterday evening the Bijou Comedy gave a most excellent performance of "Lynwood," a drama founded on the war of the rebellion.

There was a good audience in attendance and everyone was more than satisfied with the efforts of the various members of the company.

The performance was a benefit for Miss Lizzie Lingham and Miss Lillie Atwood. The former lady is a fine actress, and on this occasion, as Lucilly Carlyle, she showed to great advantage. Her acting throughout was superb. Miss Atwood, as Miss Gay, gave a capital representation of the character. Kate (a spy) was cleverly taken by Miss Eberle. Mr. Roberts deserves much credit for the manner in which he took the part of Victor Blanchard. The confession was well done. Much amusement was caused when D. M. Crowley appeared as Judge Carlyle.

He looked somewhat stage struck, but he overcame it after two or three puns at a mysterious looking bottle. Lidie West as Dido the negro girl was capital. Mr. Frank Cleaves was quite at home as Dudley Middleton. It was a character that suited him and was excellently played. The funny part was E. E. E. G. Carter and of course taken by Horace Ewing. This accomplished comedian was seen at his best. Messrs. F. J. Atwood and J. G. Waibel carried their respective parts well.

Taken altogether it was certainly the best performance given by the company, and those who were not present, missed a rare treat. The stage settings, and particularly in the third act when there was a camp and stands of arms on the stage, were all that could be desired.

Saturday evening the company will present Black-eyed Susan and the Rough Diamond, which should attract a full house.

HONOKAA MURDER CASE.

The Four Defendants Found Guilty of Manslaughter—Sentence Passed.

A private letter from Hilo dated May 16th and written hurriedly, was received by the barkentine Amelia yesterday. The vessel came in ballast and brought no regular mail.

The murder trial was ended either Thursday or Friday, letter does not state which. The verdict must have been manslaughter in 2d degree against J. R. Mills and T. Steele, who were sentenced each to nine years imprisonment at hard labor. The other two defendants, Blabon and Watson must have been found guilty of manslaughter in the 3d degree, as they were sentenced as follows:

Blabon to five years and Watson to four years imprisonment at hard labor. The letter also states there were two other criminal cases tried before the vessels' leaving, one for perjury and the other for liquor selling. In these the defendants were acquitted. Hon. Paul Neumann defended in both cases. There was no session on Saturday, the Court and members of the bar preferring to have a rest after the murder trial, to begin fresh on the 19th.

The Central Union Church was well filled last evening at the first service of this week of the special evangelistic services now in progress. The subject was selected from the first few verses of the thirty-second Psalm. The evangelist spoke with great earnestness in urging men to forsake sin and accept the Gospel of the Son of God. At the close of the earnest appeal quite a number of young people rose for prayers, and several brief testimonies were given.

The usual large chorus choir led the singing, which was exceedingly interesting. The services will be continued every evening this week in the church at 7:30 o'clock.

That Shirt Button

Can get a man's "dander riz," and cause more confusion and bad language when it isn't there, than anything we know of. It is always the little things that worry a man in this world, and wear him out and bring him down to fill an early grave. If on rising in the morning he puts his naked foot on the business end of a tin tack, that's another little item that gets his "hair off." It's always the small matters that cause the trouble, a tag end of a cigarette
